NOTICE IN TERMS OF SECTION 39 (1) (b) OF THE PREVENTION OF ORGANISED CRIME ACT, ACT No. 121 OF 1998
("THE ACT")

This notice is addressed to Tobi Michael Onvokore and all other persons who have an interest in the property representing such property or the proceeds of such property ("the property"):

Take notice that:

1. The National Director of Public Prosecutions ("National Director") has obtained a preservation of property order ("the Order"), a copy of which is attached to this notice, in terms of section 38 (2) of the Act in respect of the property.

2. If you have an interest in the property, you should understand that it is now at risk. You would be well advised to obtain legal advice on whether your interest can be protected and, if so, how to protect.

3. You are advised that the National Director will, within 90 days of publication of this notice, apply to the High Court under section 48 of the Act for an order declaring the property forfeit to the State. The Order will remain in force until the application for a forfeiture order is finalised, and until any forfeiture order that is made is satisfied.

4. If you intend opposing the application for a forfeiture order, or you intend applying for an order excluding your interest from a forfeiture order in respect of the property, you must enter an appearance in terms of the Order. The requirements for such an appearance are set out in the Order and are also dealt with in sections 39 (3), (4) and (5) of the Act. An appearance must comply with these requirements.

5. Your attention is specifically drawn to the 14-day time limit prescribed in section 39 (4) for the entry of an appearance referred to in paragraph 4 above.

6. If you enter an appearance in terms of the Order you will be entitled to be given 14 days notice of the application by the Applicant for a forfeiture order in respect of the property.

7. If you fail to enter an appearance to defend in terms of the Order or to comply with the above requirements, you will not be given notice of the application for a forfeiture order and you will not be entitled to appear at the hearing of the application. In such a case the Court may grant a default order forfeiting the property to the State under section 53 of the Act.

ORDERS OF THE COURT (continued) • ORDERS VAN DIE HOF (vervolg)

8. You may, on good cause (including the non-availability of any other suitable remedy to protect your legitimate rights or interests), on 72 hours notice to the Applicant, and within 8 days of becoming aware of the order, apply for reconsideration of the Order.

9. You are specifically advised that even if you intend applying for reconsideration of the preservation order in this case, you must in addition comply with paragraphs 4 and 5 above if you intend opposing the forfeiture application subsequently. Failure to do so can result in a forfeiture order being granted against the property by default and without further notice to you.

7.4.6 whether you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred to in Schedule 1 of POCA, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities;

7.4.7 the facts:

7.4.7.1 on which you intend to rely in opposing the making of a forfeiture order or applying for a rescission order;

7.4.7.2 on the basis of which you admit or deny that the property concerned is an instrumentality of an offence referred in Schedule 1 of the Act, or is the proceeds of unlawful activities.

8. If you give notice in terms of the order and comply with the above requirements for the notice you will be entitled to be given 14 days' notice of the application for the forfeiture order.

9. If you should fail to give notice of your intention to oppose validly and in good time, or if you should not have received or become aware of this notice, you may yet have grounds to apply in terms of section 49 of POCA for leave of the Court to give late notice of your intention to oppose.

10. Any persons affected by the preservation order may apply to the Court to have that order set aside in the circumstances mentioned in section 47 (1) of POCA. In addition, the Court is obliged by the provisions of section 47 (1) (b) of POCA to set aside or rescind the preservation order when the proceedings against the Defendant concerned are concluded. However, section 50 (4) of POCA also provides that the validity of a forfeiture order is not affected by the outcome of the criminal proceedings in respect of an offence with which the property is associated.

11. The order in respect of immovable property may be rescinded or set aside by the Court at any time on the application by a person who is affected by it.

12. A forfeiture order must also be published in the Gazette in terms of section 50 (5) of POCA. If a forfeiture order should have been made before you become aware that it is to be sought, you may have grounds on which to apply to this Court in terms of section 54 of POCA for the exclusion of your interest from the operation of the forfeiture order already made, or for an order varying the operation of the forfeiture order in respect of the property. You will then have to comply with the procedural requirements of section 54. You will have only 45 days from the date of publication of the forfeiture in the Gazette in which to make an application to the Court for relief.

13. If a forfeiture order or any other order under section 53 (1) (b) of POCA should be made by default, any person whose interest in the property concerned is affected by the order will have the right, within 20 days after acquiring knowledge of the order, to set the matter down for variation or rescission of the order by the Court and the Court is empowered, upon good cause shown, to vary or rescind the default order or to give some other direction on such terms as it deems appropriate.
